THE COURT HOUSE

Built in 1890, The Court House is perched on wooded slopes of Hawkesbury sandstone, high above Macdonald River and St Albans. The building, originally consisting of a courtroom, police station & lock-up, now offers comfortable overnight & holiday accommodation. The original prisoners' exercise yard is now a recreational area. The two original cells have been retained as two unique bathrooms.

Recognised by the National Trust and has a City of Hawkesbury heritage classification. House has 4 bedrooms, (3 queen and 2 single beds), full kitchen, open fireplace formal living & dining rooms and wood burner in the old exercise yard which currently houses a table tennis table. We are in a perfect place for access for both the Convict Trail, Wollombi, Cattai and Yengo National Parks. 19 Upper MacDonald Rd, St Albans.
